Several years ago, SiOC created an endowment at California State University, Sacramento (CSUS) that provides an annual scholarship to students pursuing degrees leading to a career in the media or as an information officer in government service. This endowment is called "The SiOC Stephan Brophy Scholarship," named after a SiOC Board of Directors Secretary tragically killed by a hit and run driver while she was trying to prevent him from stealing her son's car.

For consideration, a completed application must be received in the Department of Communication Studies Office by 4:50 P.M., Monday, November 2, 2009. Include the following document:

An essay of no less than 200 words and no more than 400 words discussing any critical issue of the day from either a global, industry, local or interpersonal perspective. Applicant's student identification number, not name, must appear on essay.

The award recipient must agree to attend the scholarship awards ceremony at the State Information Officers' Holiday luncheon in December.
