

What Can You Do With A Communication Studies/Journalism Degree?

Account Executive
Advertising Executive
Anchorperson/Reporter
Arts Administrator
Assistant to Media Planner & Media Buyer,
 Advertising Agency
Associated Press Reporter
Bookstore Owner/Manager
Broadcast Journalist
Broadcast News Producer
Broadcast Production Supervisor
Broadcast Scriptwriter
Campaign Director
Chamber of Commerce Representative
College Placement Officer
College Recruiter
Communication Consultant
Communication Researcher
Communication Statistician
Communication Trainer
Communications Coordinator
Community Affairs Director
Community College Teacher
Community Outreach Manager
Community Relations Director
Community Service Coordinator
Customer Service Representative
Development Officer
Director of Corporate Communication
Disc Jockey
Elected Official
Employment Interviewer
Entrepreneur
Event Planner
Film Director
Forensics/Debate Director
Fund Raiser
Governmental Press Secretary
Health Services Manager
Hotel Events Coordinator
Human Development Trainer
Human Resources Manager
Human Rights Officer
Insurance Claims Adjuster
International Student Coordinator
Labor Negotiator
Labor Relations Consultant
Language Arts Teacher
Lawyer
Legal Communication Consultant
Legislative Advocate
Legislative Correspondent
Marketing Analyst
Marketing Communication Manager
Marketing Researcher
Media Account Executive
Media Buyer
Media Critic
Media Relations Specialist
Minister
News Photographer
News Production Coordinator
News Reporter
Newsletter Editor
Newspaper Columnist
Newspaper Sportswriter
Nonprofit Organization Director
Organizational Development Specialist
Personnel Specialist
Police Officer
Political Campaign Director
Politician
Project Resources Manager
Public Affairs Director
Public Information Officer
Public Opinion Researcher
Public Relations Officer
Public Speaker

Publications Editor
Real Estate Agent
Recreation Coordinator
Sales Consultant
Script Writer
Secondary Teacher
Social Services Worker
Sound Technician
Speech Writer
Sports Announcer

Survey Research Consultant
Telecommunications Specialist
Television Producer
Tourism Bureau Director
Training Program Manager
Training Specialist
University Communication Professor
Volunteers Membership Coordinator
Web Master/Mistress

Sports Information Officer
Student Activities Director