

Join the Debate Team!

All Sacramento State students, regardless of experience, are eligible to join the debate team. We welcome students from all majors at any point in their college career.

To become a member of the team, sign up for Communication Studies 110 and Communication Studies 111. The class meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 3:00 to 5:45. ComS 111 is a 1 unit, credit/no credit lab section, while ComS 110 is a 3 unit graded course. Students must sign up for both sections to be on the team. Students should expect an average amount of “homework” for an upper-division ComS course. During class, we will learn about the current debate topic as well as debate theory and the skills required to compete in intercollegiate policy debate. The team travels to 4 tournaments per semester, and each student is required to attend at least one of those tournaments (though most students attend more than one). Tournaments are usually Friday afternoon through Sunday evening at another college campus in Northern California. Transportation will be provided and travel costs and tournament entry fees will be covered by the team’s annual budget.

If you are unable to sign up for the class before the semester begins or if you have questions, simply show up on the first day of the semester, or email coach Kristen Tudor, khamilton@csus.edu.
