Thank you for your interest in Epsilon Phi. Epsilon Phi is a chapter of Lambda Pi Eta, a nationally recognized honor society for Communication Studies majors.

In order to qualify for membership, you must meet the following criteria:

1. Be a declared Communication Studies major.
2. Have an overall GPA of 3.0 with a minimum GPA of 3.25 in the Communication Studies major.
3. Have completed a minimum of 60 units, of which 12 units must be Communication Studies classes.

If you feel you meet these requirements, please fill out the following information, attach an unofficial transcript* or your Invitation Letter (if you received one), and return the documents to the Communication Studies office in Mendocino Hall, room 5014. If your membership is approved, you will be asked to submit your membership dues of $50 for the first year. Semester dues are $15.00. You will also have the option of purchasing an honor cord which you may wear during graduation ceremonies. (If you have several semesters to go before graduating you may order your cord later.)

*The information contained in your transcript is for verification of GPA and units only. The information will be kept confidential in accordance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974.
